Charge to the Congregation:

You have heard the solemn promise. Receive it not as the word of men, but what the Word of God expects of you as members of his flock. Listen eagerly to his preaching of the Word, receiving it not as a word of men, but the Word of God. Take to heart his scriptural words of warning and encouragement, humbly accepting the Word planted in you. Work together with him for our Lord's kingdom so that your works of service might build up the Body of Christ. Honor him and love him. The Apostle Paul says: "Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Pray for him continually, that his ministry among you may be greatly blessed."

Charge to Pastor:

As an ambassador of Christ, you are to preach and teach the pure doctrine of God's Word, administer the ordinances of the Church according to Christ's institution, instruct the young in the way of salvation, counsel the inquiring, strengthen the weak, seek the lost and reclaim the straying, comfort the sorrowing, care for the needy, visit the sick, minister to the dying and pray for the spiritual welfare of every soul under your care.

You are to devote yourself to the meditation and study of the Scriptures and carry out your duties in conformity with the Word of God. You (and your family) are to be an example to others in godliness and Christian living, putting no stumbling block in anyone's path, so that the ministry will not be discredited.

The Apostle Paul says, here is a trustworthy saying: "If any one sets his heart on being an overseer, he desires a noble task. Now the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him with proper respect. (II Timothy 3:1-4, 6, 7)

Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct rebuke and encourage with great patience and careful instruction. Keep your head in all situations, endure hardship; do the work of an evangelist; discharge all the duties of your ministry. (II Timothy 4:2, 5)

Words of Installation:

Do you in the presence of God and this congregation:

- Solemnly pledge to serve this congregation to the best of your ability, according to the affirmations you have given in your ordination?

- Like our Lord, determined to be a good minister of Jesus Christ, remembering that you have come "not to be served, but to serve" and keep yourself in true devotion to your high calling; to practice daily the faith you profess, administer the ordinances in purity, proclaim the truth with love and endeavor to lead this people in the ways of Christ the Lord?
